Miss Joyce M. Allen,
Kettering & District Hospital,
Kettering.

Dear Miss Allen,

I am writing on behalf of the Council of the Royal College of Nursing and on my own behalf to congratulate you most sincerely on your success in the recent Final State Examination. I feel sure that you are very happy to have attained the status of a State Registered Nurse which brings with it various privileges and responsibilities.

I hope that you will feel that one of the responsibilities of being a full member of a highly respected profession is that you should play your part in professional affairs by joining a professional organisation. The Royal College of Nursing, which seeks to safeguard the position of nurses and to represent their interests would welcome you as a member. The College is recognised as the body which can speak on behalf of the nursing profession, and in this age of extensive organisation it is the voice of many, speaking through a strong organisation, which is heard, whilst the voice of the individual is lost in obscurity.

THE GENERAL NURSING COUNCIL FOR ENGLAND AND WALES,
