Would you like targeted updates on your professional interests?

List your interests below & sign up to receive KnowledgeShare high-level evidence updates in your field/interest by email.

How does KnowledgeShare work?

It uses a profile matching system (settings from your profile are matched with settings on documents added by librarians across the NHS). It can be as broad or specific as you require (e.g. obstetrics or limit to receive items related to gestational diabetes).

Condition/Risk

Factors (e.g. diabetes, obesity, dementia, cardiovascular, respiratory tract, hypersensitivity)

Professional Interests

(e.g. patient safety, service design, education, research, leadership, quality)

Age Groups

(please tick all that apply)

- Neonates
- Children & Adolescents
- Adults
- Elderly

Settings (e.g. GP, Community, A&E, Surgery, hospital ward)

The KnowledgeShare system helps to share knowledge across the NHS by connecting staff with one another. We would like to share your information with other NHS staff and students for this purpose. If you agree please tick the appropriate boxes, if you do not tick your information will only be visible to the KGH Library staff and the KnowledgeShare provider (Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust Library Service):

Share with other colleagues in the NHS

Share with other colleagues in my organisation

We would also like to contact you occasionally by email with current awareness information on various topics. Please tick if you are happy for us to:

Send current awareness information

You may change these settings at www.knowledgeshare.nhs.uk (using your NHS OpenAthens account).

Note: Membership to KnowledgeShare is restricted to staff and students eligible for an NHS OpenAthens account. If you do not already have a KGH OpenAthens account and are eligible, would you like the KGH Library team to create one on your behalf? If so, please tick the box in the KGH OpenAthens section opposite.

PLEASE SIGN OVERLEAF

Contact you will receive as part of your membership

We do not contact you for 'marketing' purposes.

All the information we request or provide you with via email, post or phone is regarding your KGH Library membership account (which you signed to join), updates to Library Services or details of current and new resources available to you.

What you will receive (via email, post or phone):-

- Notifications for items you have out on loan or have placed a hold on.
- Overdue, recall and outstanding charges emails and letters for items you have on loan and have not returned by their due date.
- Account update requests (to comply with Data Protection we have to evidence that the information we hold is relevant and up-to-date, we therefore set a maximum account expiry of 3 years (this will depend on your employment and student status))
- Newsletters giving information about the services on offer to you and any updates that require your attention. Maximum Frequency - Monthly
- Current Awareness leaflets by topic and alerts Maximum Frequency - Weekly
- Annual user survey – a requirement of NHS library accreditation but also gives us the opportunity to access and change our services or practices where required. Maximum Frequency - Annually
- Surveys to gain feedback on services that have been provided to you, i.e. training sessions and enquiry/literature search requests. Maximum Frequency – once after each service has been provided.
